NOTES FROM THE CHILDREN'S MINISTRY

I think most of us grew up with Halloween being a fun, innocent night where our one goal was to fill our bag with the most candy possible. We would walk up to total strangers' houses, knock on their doors and beg for sweets. My fondest memories are the costumes my grandmother made for me and my brother and my grandmother's and my great-aunt's popcorn balls. We always made stops at my grandparents' house and at Bro. Hite's. (one year Allen was a magician, I was a rabbit and dad had made a big hat that I wore like I was coming out of it)

Today I enjoy dressing the boys up and taking them out to the neighborhood, family and of course to our favorite place...Nonnie's house. To this day we have never dressed scary or as a monster. I purposefully stay away from the dark side of Halloween and keep it fun and innocent, not dark and scary.

Friday October 30th our church is going to offer a safe fun place for kids and their families to come. We are having a Trunk-or-Treat (similar to trick-or-treat but instead of houses it's cars). We need our church folks to participate in this. I need you and your car this night. Have your car trunk or truck trunk decorated anyway you want (preferably not scary) and hand out candy or treats to the kids who come through. Please help us give the kids a safe and fun choice this night. If you don't want to decorate your car, there are plenty of other jobs to do this night. We need every able body... Come see me to sign up. Don't miss out on the party.

~Fall Break~

Longing for Him

"Whom have I in heaven but You, and there is nothing on earth that I desire besides You. My flesh and my heart may fail, but God is the strength of my heart and my portion forever. –Psalm 73:25-26, ESV

Blessed Lord,
Let me climb up near to Thee,
And love, and long, and plead, and wrestle with Thee,
And pant for deliverance from the body of sin,
For my heart is wandering and lifeless,
And my soul mourns to think it should ever lose sight of its beloved.
Wrap my life in divine love, and keep me ever desiring Thee,
Always humble and resigned to thy will,
More fixed on Thyself,
That I may be more fitted for doing and suffering.
--A PURITAN PRAYER

God wants us to long for Him with the longing that will become lovesickness, that will become a wound to our spirits, to keep us always moving toward Him, always finding and always seeking, always having and always desiring. So the earth becomes less and less valuable and heaven gets closer as we move into God and up into Christ. A.W. Tozer

WINTER COATS FOR KIDS

Warm the heart of an Old Hickory child by donating a gently worn coat to keep them warm during the cold winter. More details later.
